3. Personal Disclosures & Certification

Personal Disclosure

Community Sector Banking collects your personal information to provide you with the account(s) that you have requested. To do this, we may need to disclose your personal information to organisations that carry out functions on our behalf ("service providers") such as mailing houses, plastic card and cheque book production bureaux, electronic network administrators, information technology service providers, introducers, valuers, lawyers, conveyances and collection agents and advisers acting for us and to government agencies which administer land titles, mortgage insurers, other credit providers and credit reporting agencies. We also use your personal information to perform our regular and necessary business functions (for example, internal audit investigations, managing operational risk, product development and planning).

If any part of that information is not provided, we may not be able to properly administer the account(s) to which you have requested access. Collection of some of this information is required under the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 and/or the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

We may also share your personal information with Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited, related companies in the Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Group, our joint venture partners and Bendigo Bank Community Banks® in order to manage your relationship with us, and so that you can be told about products and services offered or distributed by us or them. To tell you about new products and services, we may need to give your personal information to our service providers. If you do not want to receive information about new products and services, you can either tell us or call the Bendigo Bank Customer Help Centre 1300 361 911. In most cases, you gain access to your personal information.

We may also need to collect information about a third party from you as part of this application. If we do this you agree that you will advise that person that we have collected their personal information to assist it with managing your product, and that in most cases they can access the personal information that we hold about them by contacting the Bendigo Bank Customer Help Centre on 1300 361 911.
